

The Robert McElwee Rainey Philanthropy Award

The Foothills Community Foundation board of directors has established the Robert M. Rainey Philanthropy Award. This award will be presented to a philanthropist in the Oconee, Pickens, and Anderson County area who has made significant contributions to the betterment of the community by raising awareness for charitable causes, selflessly contributing personal resources, advocating for needs in the community, and inspiring others to have the same benevolent spirit. The award is named after longtime president of Foothills Community Foundation, Robert M. Rainey, who led the Foundation through a decade and a half of growth as a leading philanthropic organization in the Upstate.
